How to Setup CX1 Gaming 800 Controller with GTA V

You can view the list of all games, compatible with your controller, a joystick, a wheel, a game pad, etc., from the console.Monday, October 18, 2006 It's official. Donnie Darko has won the 2009 Oscar for Best Supporting Actor. He beat out Seth Macfarlane, who was extremely funny but somehow we didn't think he would win, and Jamie Foxx who was seriously unexpected. I voted for Jamie. I had planned to vote for Donnie all along, but the more I thought about it, the more I thought about all the reasons it wouldn't happen for Donnie. It's worth noting that despite his endless fanboy enthusiam, I never actually saw any of Donnie Darko. Maybe it was the fact that I was sick and it was a rainy, rainy Saturday? Anyway, I guess the beautiful thing about this is that it showed the Academy that they weren't completely out of touch. If you like science fiction and think that movies like Donnie Darko are funny, maybe you're not completely out of touch. 1 comment: Personally I voted for Jamie, only because I didn't expect him to win, but I voted anyway. He was the only real "Oscar-worthy" candidate, and a heckuva lot more likable and lighthearted than Donnie Darko. I would hope the Academy isn't totally out of touch, I really would, but I just can't see it.
